

Little Kids Can Too!

- ❖ Think of a topic you are or will be studying in your classroom.
- ❖ Browse the following links to find resources about your topic.

Payton's Pick for K-2 Resource Sites

Ask Jeeves for Kids: search using "natural" language

<http://www.ajkids.com/>

Berits Best Sites for Kids: best 1,000 sites for kids

<http://www.beritsbest.com/>

EduPuppy: geared for K-2 students

<http://www.edupuppy.com/>

Best Sites for Kids: geared for PreK-Primary

<http://www.kidsites.org/>

Children's Literature Links

<http://www.tammypayton.net/library/literature.shtml>

Find resources for teachers and students on this page.

Educational Databases

<http://www.tammypayton.net/library/dbase.shtml>

List of general resources

- ❖ Find at least three websites you can use to support your topic.
- ❖ Copy and paste the addresses of those sites back onto this page next to a word URL, then describe how you will use this site.

1. URL:

describe how you will use this site with your class:

2. URL:

describe how you will use this site with your class:

3. URL:

describe how you will use this site with your class:

- ❖ Be prepared to introduce yourself and share one of the websites you found and how you will use this with your classroom curriculum.